Remain in My Love

Christ is Risen; Truly He is Risen! Alleluia!

Alleluia! As our Easter Scriptures continue unfolding, the Risen Lord, as the True Vine, wants us to remain in relationship with Him and to produce abundantly both a life of holiness and disciples for the Kingdom.

Continuing the exhortation “to remain in Him,” the Lord explains how we do this:

“As the Father loves me, so I also love you. Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commandments and remain in his love. I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy might be complete. This is my commandment: love one another as I love you.”

Remaining in the Lord, abiding in his love happens by keeping his commandments, but keeping his commandments is different from following the orders of a general. Jesus places obeying his commandments in the context of Jesus’ own obedience to his Father’s commandments and the Father’s love for him. Flowing from the perfect union of the Father and the Son, Jesus’ obedience expresses this union, this closeness, this relationship. As the law of gravity expresses a certain truth of physics, so Christ’s commandments express and reveal the truths and qualities of the Divine Nature, which is Love.

This Divine Nature we received in Baptism is our New Life as God’s adopted children. Much more than a new name or title or even a way of living life, the New Life of the baptized is the very sharing in God’s nature, Love, and his friendship - remaining in Him, and Him in us. When the Lord says, “Remain in my love.” the Lord does not mean it in the sense of “Remain in my favor.” Instead, Jesus is teaching us that the nature of a child of God is love, and the nature of this love is described and illustrated by the commandments. Because we have been made in the image and likeness of God for a relationship with Him, our true joy is found in this close relationship with the LORD and living love truly--“I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy might be complete.”

Love seeks union. Perfect love seeks perfect union, and perfect union is what heaven is. Jesus offers us union with him here and now in Holy ‘Comm-Union.’ The Eucharist empowers us to live our relationship with the LORD ever more effectively, intimately, and obediently. In other words, the Eucharist strengthens our Union with God that we may remain in Him and Him in us.

Fr. Allan F. Wolfe

Permanece en Mi amor

Cristo ha resucitado; ¡Verdaderamente ha resucitado!

Continuando con la exhortación a “permanecer en Él” el Señor explica cómo hacemos esto:

“Como el Padre me ama, así también yo os amo.

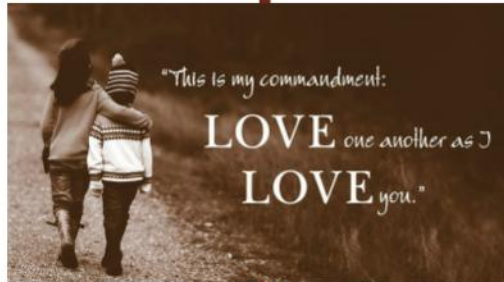

Permanece en mi amor. Si guardáis mis mandamientos, permaneceréis en mi amor, así como yo he guardado los mandamientos de mi Padre y permanezco en su amor. Os he dicho esto para que mi alegría esté en vosotros y vuestra alegría sea completa. Este es mi mandamiento: amaos unos a otros como yo os amo”.

Permanecer en el Señor, permanecer en su amor pasa por guardar sus mandamientos, pero guardar sus mandamientos es diferente a seguir las órdenes de un general. Jesús sitúa la obediencia a sus mandamientos en el contexto de la propia obediencia de Jesús a los mandamientos de su Padre y del amor del Padre por él. La obediencia de Jesús, que brota de la perfecta unión del Padre y del Hijo, expresa esta unión, esta cercanía, esta relación. Así como la ley de la gravedad expresa una cierta verdad de la física, así los mandamientos de Cristo expresan y revelan las verdades y cualidades de la Naturaleza Divina, que es Amor.

Esta Naturaleza Divina que recibimos en el Bautismo es nuestra Nueva Vida como hijos adoptivos de Dios. Mucho más que un nuevo nombre o título o incluso una forma de vivir la vida, la Nueva Vida de los bautizados es la participación misma de la naturaleza, el Amor y la amistad de Dios, permaneciendo en Él y Él en nosotros. Cuando el Señor dice: “Permaneced en mi amor”. el Señor no lo dice en el sentido de “Permanece a mi favor”. En cambio, Jesús nos está enseñando que la naturaleza de un hijo de Dios es amor, y la naturaleza de este amor se describe e ilustra en los mandamientos. Debido a que hemos sido hechos a imagen y semejanza de Dios para una relación con Él, nuestro verdadero gozo se encuentra en esta relación cercana con el Señor y en vivir el amor verdaderamente: “Os he dicho esto para que mi gozo esté en vosotros”. y vuestro gozo sea completo”.

El amor busca la unión. El amor perfecto busca la unión perfecta, y la unión perfecta es lo que es el cielo. Jesús nos ofrece unión con él aquí y ahora en la Santa “Comunión”. La Eucaristía nos capacita para vivir nuestra relación con el Señor de manera cada vez más efectiva, íntima y obediente. En otras palabras, la Eucaristía fortalece nuestra unión con Dios para que podamos permanecer en Él y Él en nosotros.

The Wonderful Work of the Holy Spirit

As Catholics when we recite the Nicene Creed (our Profession of Faith), we affirm our belief in the Holy Spirit. Have you ever thought about how life would be if we didn't have the Holy Spirit? Without the Holy Spirit there would be no child Jesus born of the Virgin Mary to redeem us from our sin. Without the Holy Spirit there would be no baptism, confirmation, eucharist, etc. Without the Holy Spirit there would be no Sacred Scriptures, no spiritual gifts, fruits, or saints to help us live life with confidence, courage, mercy, forgiveness, joy and love. Without the Holy Spirit there would be no Pentecost or birth of the church. Since the resurrection of our Lord on Easter Sunday, the Holy Spirit has been and continues to work in and through people to build up and fortify the Church. May we also allow the Holy Spirit to work in and through each one of us so we too can be God's instruments of grace and go forth sharing with others the goodness and the glory of almighty God.
