Taught with Authority

Authority is a perplexing concept, creating at times contradictory reactions, especially in our American culture. Many view authority as a dynamic opposed to the exercise of their freedom. Bluntly stated: people don't like to be told what to do.

Yet, when facing a crisis, whether it is a natural disaster like an impending hurricane or a national security issue like terrorism, individuals do turn to the authorities for answers. This second perspective views authority at the service of others. Although there are many examples of legitimate authority being misused, authority provides necessary order for our lives. Whether it is in the family, the state or the Church, authority serves to guide proper relationships and growth. Our own attitudes about authority not only color the way we respond to people in authority, but also to the ultimate authority, who is God.

Notice in today's passage from the gospel, Mark tells us "The people were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes." Christ's authority was appealing. Unlike the scribes who taught by referencing other rabbis' and scribes' opinions, Jesus demonstrated authority by teaching the truth of God and God's kingdom. He could teach the truth, because he is the truth of God, the Word made Flesh. And the truth is appealing and attractive.

Jesus reaffirmed his authority to teach, to reveal and to invite people to trust in God through the power of his miracles. By healing the sick, expelling unclean spirits, and forgiving sinners, the Lord showed that he was more than words; he revealed that he truly is "the Way, the Truth and the Life." The Scriptures for the last two Sundays have extended to us the invitation to follow the Lord, who is both the Lamb of God and the one who makes us 'fishers of men.' Today, his teaching with authority offers the same invitation to "Come and See!"

Saint Pope John Paul II wrote in his encyclical, Veritatis Splendor, "The splendour of truth shines forth in all the works of the Creator and, in a special way, in man, created in the image and likeness of God (cf. Gen 1:26). Truth enlightens man's intelligence and shapes his freedom, leading him to know and love the Lord . . . Consequently the decisive answer to every one of man's questions, his religious and moral questions in particular, is given by Jesus Christ, or rather is Jesus Christ himself" This is why he is the one we must share with others. And the reason our Corpus Christi Catholic School is such an essential ministry for reinforcing for our children that Jesus is the One we need to follow. Fr. Allan F. Wolfe

Enseño con Autoridad

La autoridad es un concepto desconcertante, que a veces crea reacciones contradictorias, especialmente en nuestra cultura estadounidense. Muchos ven la autoridad como una dinámica opuesta al ejercicio de su libertad. Dicho sin rodeos: a la gente no le gusta que le digan qué hacer.

Sin embargo, cuando se enfrenta a una crisis, ya sea un desastre natural como un huracán inminente o un problema de seguridad nacional como el terrorismo, las personas recurren a las autoridades en busca de respuestas. Esta segunda perspectiva ve la autoridad al servicio de los demás. Aunque hay muchos ejemplos de abuso de la autoridad legítima, la autoridad proporciona el orden necesario para nuestras vidas. Ya sea en la familia, el estado o la Iglesia, la autoridad sirve para guiar las relaciones y el crecimiento adecuado. Nuestras propias actitudes sobre la autoridad no solo influyen en la forma en que respondemos a las personas con autoridad, sino también a la autoridad suprema, que es Dios.

Observe que en el pasaje de hoy del evangelio, Marcos nos dice: "Los oyentes quedaron asombrados de sus palabras, pues enseñaba como quien tiene autoridad y no como los escribas". La autoridad de Cristo era atractiva. A diferencia de los escribas que enseñaban haciendo referencia a las opiniones de otros rabinos y escribas, Jesús demostró autoridad al enseñar la verdad de Dios y el reino de Dios. Él enseñó la verdad, porque él es la verdad de Dios, la Palabra hecho Carne. Y la verdad es atractiva.

Jesús reafirmó su autoridad para enseñar, revelar e invitar a las personas a confiar en Dios a través del poder de sus milagros. Al curar a los enfermos, expulsar los espíritus inmundos y perdonar a los pecadores, el Señor mostró que él era más que palabras; reveló que él verdaderamente es "el Camino, la Verdad y la Vida". Las Escrituras de los dos últimos domingos nos han extendido la invitación a seguir al Señor, que es el Cordero de Dios y el que nos hace 'pescadores de hombres'. Hoy, su enseñanza con autoridad ofrece la misma invitación a "Vengan a ver!"

San Juan Pablo II escribió en su encíclica Veritatis Splendor: "El esplendor de la verdad brilla en todas las obras del Creador y, de modo particular, en el hombre, creado a imagen y semejanza de Dios (cf. Gn 1 : 26) pues la verdad ilumina la inteligencia y modela la libertad del hombre, de que esta manera es conocer y amar al Señor. . . Por esto, la respuesta decisiva a cada interrogante del hombre, en particular a sus interrogantes religiosas y morales, la da Jesucristo; más aun . . . es la persona misma de Jesucristo ". Por eso es a él a quien debemos compartir con los demás.

From Palms to Ashes

Lent is approaching quickly, and that means Ash Wednesday - Feb. 14th - will be upon us before we know it. The ashes for this season of repentance come from burning the palms received on Palm Sunday, so everyone is invited to bring your old, dried up palms back to Corpus Christi this upcoming Sunday and put them in the basket in front of the pulpit. These will then be burned and the ashes put on our foreheads as a sign of our repentance and contrition.

Weekly Assistance Report: For the week ending Jan 20, the pantry was closed two days on account of snow. The one day it was open, 43 households were provided food.

We may never really know what others are going through. We may never know how much a kindness or a helping hand might mean to them or what a difference it might make for them. Our SVDP touches many people every day, through our food pantry as well as our assistance program, and you make that possible through your generous support of this ministry. For that reason, we thank you and want to share with you the following:

Recently SVDP received a call from the secretary at one of the other churches in town. The secretary was working with a woman, whom we will just call Mary. Mary was facing eviction within days and had run out of options. The church was planning to assist her, but being a small church, the amount available in their Benevolence Fund was not sufficient to prevent the eviction. The church was hoping that SVDP would help with the remainder needed. After obtaining all of the necessary information, SVDP agreed to help. The next day, the church secretary emailed the following message to the SVDP Assistance Coordinator:

Please tell all your board that I am eternally grateful that they are so giving and are helping Mary. Mary told me that this has really helped restore her faith and remind her that God has not forgotten about her. She's been given a lot to handle recently, and I think this has been so encouraging for her. She also attended our church this past Sunday and plans to come again. God is drawing her back!

Again, you may never know what a difference you could be making for someone else, someone like Mary. Thank you for your generosity and faithful support!! God bless you!

Upcoming:

- Feb 10-11 - Ledo Pizza Fundraiser. Mention the code FUNDRAISER when ordering and SVDP will receive 20% of the proceeds.

IRA Rollover Gifts

Giftng from your taxable IRA is one of many ways to make annual gifts or satisfy multi-year pledges. Make a gift to Corpus Christi with a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) from your IRA. Since the QCD goes directly to Corpus Christi without passing through your hands, the amount of the gift may be excluded from your taxable income, potentially lessening your tax liability.

If you are over 70 ½ years old, inform your IRA custodian to make a distribution from your IRA directly to: Corpus Christi, 320 Philadelphia Ave, Chambersburg PA 17201. For assistance or to learn more, call or email the parish office and ask for Alex Bacay, Chair of the Planned Giving Committee of the Parish Finance Council.

2023 Income Tax Preparation
