Shepherding

In the Sacrament of Holy Baptism, after the pouring of water, infants are anointed on the crown of their head with Sacred Chrism as a reminder to “remain as a member of Christ, Priest, Prophet and King.” Holy Baptism incorporates us into the Mystical Body of Christ, the Church, and thus each baptized person shares in Christ’s priestly, prophetic, and kingly mission. His kingly mission is that of Good Shepherd.

Today, the Fourth Sunday of Easter, we reflect on the Lord Jesus as our Good Shepherd, who guides, protects, and saves us. The gospel today gives us insight into the heart and character of our Good Shepherd – “I will lay down my life for the sheep.” This form of shepherding not only reveals the love the Good Shepherd has for us, but also inspires his Church to Servant Leadership for the salvation of the world. Because Jesus did not come to be served but to serve, those who shepherd in his footsteps do so, not through power and domination, but in service. In light of our own Baptism, then, all the members of the Church share in Christ’s shepherding work to the extent they support and contribute to servant leadership in parishes.

One form of this servant leadership at the parish level is the Parish Pastoral Council. This year Pastoral Council is growing in its own understanding of how it best serves Corpus Christi in its role of shepherding and supporting the efforts, works, and ministries of parishioners and the parish. In this way, Pastoral Council assists the pastor in his responsibility of shepherding the parish.

Corpus Christi is also tremendously blessed to have been selected to be one of six parishes to participate in the Catholic Leadership Institute’s “Next Generation Parish” process. You, the people of Corpus Christi, have already been involved with this process through the Disciple Maker Index, which so many completed in December. Currently, the Envisioning Team is working with our consultant, Dr. Ximena DeBroeck, to formulate our vision and priorities, so that Corpus Christi can fulfill its priestly, prophetic, and shepherding mission in an effective and fruitful fashion.

I am so grateful to the members of the Envisioning Team – Abel Castro, Carlos Espinosa, Renee Galvan, Carlos Jimenez, Rob Mills, Mary Margaret Osterman, Cindy Richards, and Becky Weir, together with Fr. Smith and Deacon Ramsey –who are dedicating such time and attention to this stage of the “Next Generation Parish” process. Without clear vision, well-ordered priorities, and effective organization, parishes fall short of helping more and more to “Know Jesus, Love Jesus, and Follow Jesus.” May Jesus, our Good Shepherd, inspire our Shepherding.

Fr. Allan F. Wolfe

Pastoreando

En el Sacramento del Santo Bautismo, después del derramamiento del agua bendita, los niños son ungidos en la coronilla con el Santo Crisma como recordatorio para ser “para siempre miembro de Cristo, Sacerdote, Profeta y Rey”. El Santo Bautismo nos incorpora al Cuerpo Místico de Cristo, la Iglesia, y así cada bautizado comparte la misión sacerdotal, profética y real de Cristo. Su misión real es la de Buen Pastor.

Hoy, el Cuarto Domingo de Pascua, reflexionamos sobre el Señor Jesús como nuestro Buen Pastor, quien nos guía, protege y salva. El evangelio de hoy nos da una idea del corazón y el carácter de nuestro Buen Pastor: “Yo doy la vida por las ovejas”. Esta forma de pastoreo no sólo revela el amor que el Buen Pastor tiene por nosotros, sino que también inspira a su Iglesia al Liderazgo de Servicio para la salvación del mundo. Debido a que Jesús no vino para ser servido sino para servir, quienes pastorean sus pasos lo hacen, no a través del poder y la dominación, sino en el servicio. Entonces, a la luz de nuestro propio Bautismo, todos los miembros de la Iglesia comparten la obra de Cristo de pastoreo en la medida en que apoyan y contribuyen al liderazgo de servicio en las parroquias.

Una forma de este liderazgo de servicio a nivel parroquial es el Consejo Pastoral Parroquial. Este año el Consejo Pastoral está creciendo en su propia comprensión de cómo servir mejor a Corpus Christi en su papel de pastorear y apoyar los esfuerzos, obras y ministerios de los feligreses y de la parroquia. De esta manera, el Consejo Pastoral ayuda al párroco en su responsabilidad de pastorear la parroquia.

Corpus Christi también tiene una tremenda bendición de haber sido seleccionada para ser una de las seis parroquias que participarán en el proceso de “Parroquia de Próxima Generación” del Instituto de Liderazgo Católico. Ustedes, la gente de Corpus Christi, ya han estado involucrados en este proceso a través del Índice Creador de Discípulos, que muchos completaron en diciembre. Actualmente, el Equipo de Visualizando está trabajando con nuestra consultora, la Dra. Ximena DeBroeck, para formular nuestra visión y prioridades, para que Corpus Christi pueda cumplir su misión sacerdotal, profética y pastoral de manera efectiva y fructífera.

Estoy muy agradecido a los miembros del Equipo de Visualizando: Abel Castro, Carlos Espinosa, Renee Galván, Carlos Jiménez, Rob Mills, Mary Margaret Osterman, Cindy Richards y Becky Weir, junto con el Padre Smith y el Diácono Ramsey, quienes están dedicando mucho tiempo y atención a esta etapa del proceso de la “Parroquia de la Próxima Generación”. Sin una visión clara, prioridades bien ordenadas y una organización eficaz, las parroquias no logran ayudar cada vez más a “conocer a Jesús, amar a Jesús y seguir a Jesús”. Que Jesús, nuestro Buen Pastor, inspire nuestro Pastoreo.

IRA Rollover Gifts

Giftng from your taxable IRA is one of many ways to make annual gifts or satisfy multi-year pledges. Make a gift to Corpus Christi with a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) from your IRA. Since the QCD goes directly to Corpus Christi without passing through your hands, the amount of the gift may be excluded from your taxable income, potentially lessening your tax liability.

If you are over 70 ½ years old, inform your IRA custodian to make a distribution from your IRA directly to: Corpus Christi, 320 Philadelphia Ave, Chambersburg PA 17201. For assistance or to learn more, call or email the parish office and ask for Alex Bacay, Chair of the Planned Giving Committee of the Parish Finance Council.
